Homeschoolers' Drama

I'd like to offer the Fleurieu homeschooling community an opportunity to participate in improvisation classes and a Theatre Company. My purposes for offering this are to support the homeschooling community with their arts' curriculum, teach social skills through drama and build community.

I'm proposing to offer this initially on Wednesdays from 10-12 at the Mt Compass Scout Hall, subject to interest. For this to go ahead, I would need a minimum of 6 students but am more than happy to work with a bigger group. Here are some details:

- For ages 8-16
- Wednesday 10-12 at Mt Compass Scout Hall (subject to availability and interest. I'm happy to offer this on another day and more than one session if there's enough interest. I can also divide into age groups, such as 5-7, 8-11 and 12+ if needed. I'm also happy to offer it at other locations on the Fleurieu).

Improvisation Session (10-11am)

- Game based (Lots of fun and laughing 😊)
- Learn social skills such as turn taking, agreeing with others, building on the ideas of others, focus and impulse control, working as a team, confidence when speaking in front of others

Theatre Company (11am -12pm)

- Work together on an actual production to perform for family, friends and the wider community
- Learn stagecraft and technical theatre skills (costuming, lighting, set construction)
- This is an excellent context in which to build on the skills taught during improvisation classes.

Cost: Improvisation- $20 per week
Theatre Company- $10 per week

(Costs listed can be subsidised by Aspire 2 Inspire Together for members of autism community. NDIS Core Supports and/or Capacity Building funding can be used for class fees for self and plan managed NDIS participants)

Support workers welcome 😊

To register an interest and for further information, please call Andrew on 0431 455 043.

I will start this group as soon as I have expressions of interest from 6-8 students. So far, I have 3-4 who have indicated they'd like to come. PLEASE call me on 0431 455 043 to confirm your interest. Don't just turn up on the day, assuming that it will be on because I won't be starting until I have minimum numbers.
