Drama classes for young people on the NDIS

Learn social skills while having fun with drama

Can be paid for using NDIS “Core Supports” and “Capacity Building” funding

Small class sizes

Learn skills such as

- Accepting the ideas of others
- Building on the ideas of others
- Advancing and extending ideas
- Characterisation- studying facial expressions and underlying thoughts and feelings
- Theory of mind- working out what might be happening in someone else's head
- Subtext- the use of inflection to convey meaning
- Improvisation

Classes will be established in different locations and across different age ranges, according to need.
